SAMU-JUSSI KOSKI forsakes fleeting trends for the sake of creating beautiful, practical everyday products that people can actually use and feel good about using.

The collection with Lapuan Kankurit was born from the love Samu-Jussi has for the capital city of Finland. It's both an ode to his beloved Helsinki as well as the ideal of it. The designs, called TÖÖLÖ, MERIHAKA, KAAPELITEHDAS and HIETSU, named after important districts and neighbourhoods, play around with the scales and proportions of the windows and architecture of the city that holds a dear place in Samu-Jussi's heart.
